Jack Ellis Haynes, President of Haynes Inc., 78, passed away May 12 in the Memorial Hospital in Livingston. Burial was in Sunset Hills, Bozeman, Montana.

On April 16, Mr. Haynes returned to Mammoth to prepare for the opening of the 81st season of Haynes Inc. operations in Yellowstone National Park. A business whose history dates from the beginning years of the Park, Haynes Inc. holds the oldest concession franchise in the National Park System. Frank Jay Haynes, Jack's father and a noted photographer of the West, first came to the Yellowstone in 1881. Mr. Jack E. Haynes knew Nathaniel Langford and preserved in his memory the recollection of meetings with this man who, as a member of the Discovery Expedition, is credited with sharing with Cornelius Hedges the conception of the national park idea. Mr. Haynes worked with the Army administration in Yellowstone and witnessed the creation of the new National Park Service in 1916 and greeted the first National Park Service Superintendent Horace M. Albright in 1919.

It is a matter of pride to us that Mr. Haynes last public appearance was, before the annual Spring Conference Ranger force in Yellowstone on April 24. In a few remarks delivered with his characteristic gentleness and fine humor, Jack concluded in saying "I hope you men appreciate your privilege in the opportunity you have of working in Yellowstone National Park." We are better people for having known Mr. Haynes and had the benefit of his counsel.

"Jack" at one time was Acting Park Naturalist for Yellowstone National Park and was a charter member of the Yellowstone Library and Museum Association and an active Director in the Association until his death. Superintendent Garrison, Associate Superintendent Castellum, Chief Ranger Oscar Dick, Historian Aubrey Haines, Assistant Superintendent Bean and Ranger Scotty Chapman all in full National Park Service uniform served as pall bearers. Fifteen other uniformed men attended the services in a group.

Hamilton Stores, Inc. opened their Lower Store at Old Faithful on May 1; Lake Store, May 16; Canyon Village Store, May 25; and Old Faithful Basin Auto Camp Store, May 30.

Mammoth Coffee Shop opened May 30.

Yellowstone Park Service Stations opened the service station at Old Faithful No. 1, Lake and Mammoth on May 1; Canyon Village May 25.

Jack Willis Haynes, President of Haynes Inc., 76, passed away May 12 in the Memorial Hospital in Hickoryton. Haynes was an avenue child, Interest, Inventor.

On April 18, Mr. Haynes returned to Hancock to resume the spending of the last autumn of Virginia Inn, overlooking in Fairmont, National Park. A business which History Canoe from the Virginia, years of the Inns, Haynes Inn. Inside the ocean, conversation Canadian, in the National Park System. Frank Jay Haynes, Jr., prints the a museum photographer of the west, first came to the following in 1881. In April 5, Haynes then Industrial Completed and recovered in his memory the revolution of evening with Old's one who, on member of the Discovery Expedition, in creation old Atlantic with. Cornelius Hedges the conversion of the national men's wife. Mr. Haynes united with the many administration in Tuesday on withdrawn the creation of the Act Canadian, and in 1919 and granted the first national Park Service superintendent. Inc. H. Albright in 1917.

It is a matter of pride to us that Mr. Haynes last public appearance was, before the annual Indian Ceremonial Show, in Gallupshow on April 24. In a few remarks consisting only his characteristic questions and then began, only good wishes to the "I have for ever appreciate your presence in the appearance. Its love of acting in Yellowstone National Park." Indian Service people for having given Mr. Haynes the opportunity of the weekend.

"Jack" as one time was Acting Park Naturalist for Yellowstone National Park and was a charter member of the Yellowstone Park and Museum Association and an active supporter of the Jackson Hole Museum. Survivors include Carl Haynes Jackson, Jackson Hole Museum, Chief Ranger Jackson Hole, Grand Teton National Park, Assistant Superintendent Ben, and Yancy Haynes Grand Canyon and Mrs. Mildred Lake Eastin Guidera a previous park Museum. Operations

Ranger Activities South District Ranger Howard H. Chapman instructed First Aid Classes on May 10-11 to personnel attending the Foreman's Conference in Mammoth.

Biologist Howe and Robert Bergstrom, Park Naturalist, obtained plant specimens from the Stevens Creek enclosure on May 11 preparatory to the range analysis work Bergstrom will be doing under our contract with the University of Wyoming.

Seventeen seasonal rangers had entered on duty by the end of May.

Law Enforcement Four traffic cases were presented before the U. S. Commissioner in May, and resulted in 3 convictions and 1 dismissal; fines totaled $35.

A misdemeanor warrant for the arrest of Charles Reardon, alias George W. Hills, was issued by the U. S. Commissioner on May 24, following a complaint of assault involving a knife fight. The perpetrator of the offense as well as the victim were Yellowstone Park Company employees at Old Faithful. The subject of the warrant has been identified as one of four men who broke into a Park visitor's car and stole $2,000 of personal property on May 15. All the property was recovered a few hours later, and by the close of the month three of the four miscreants, including Reardon, were in custody.

Roads and Trails Routine road maintenance was devoted to snow removal, drainage control, and clearing the roads and roadsides.

Additional traffic counters were installed in the Fishing Bridge area to study traffic in this development.
